Two Down and One To Go

In millions of American windows today, hangs a flag . . . on the flag—a star . . . each star is a man . . . behind each star—a home . . . our home—your home—the American home

They challenged the happiness of that home. Three of them—But when they started to play rough, we played rough, too . . . So now there is no longer three . . . It's TWO DOWN, . . . AND ONE TO GO . . .

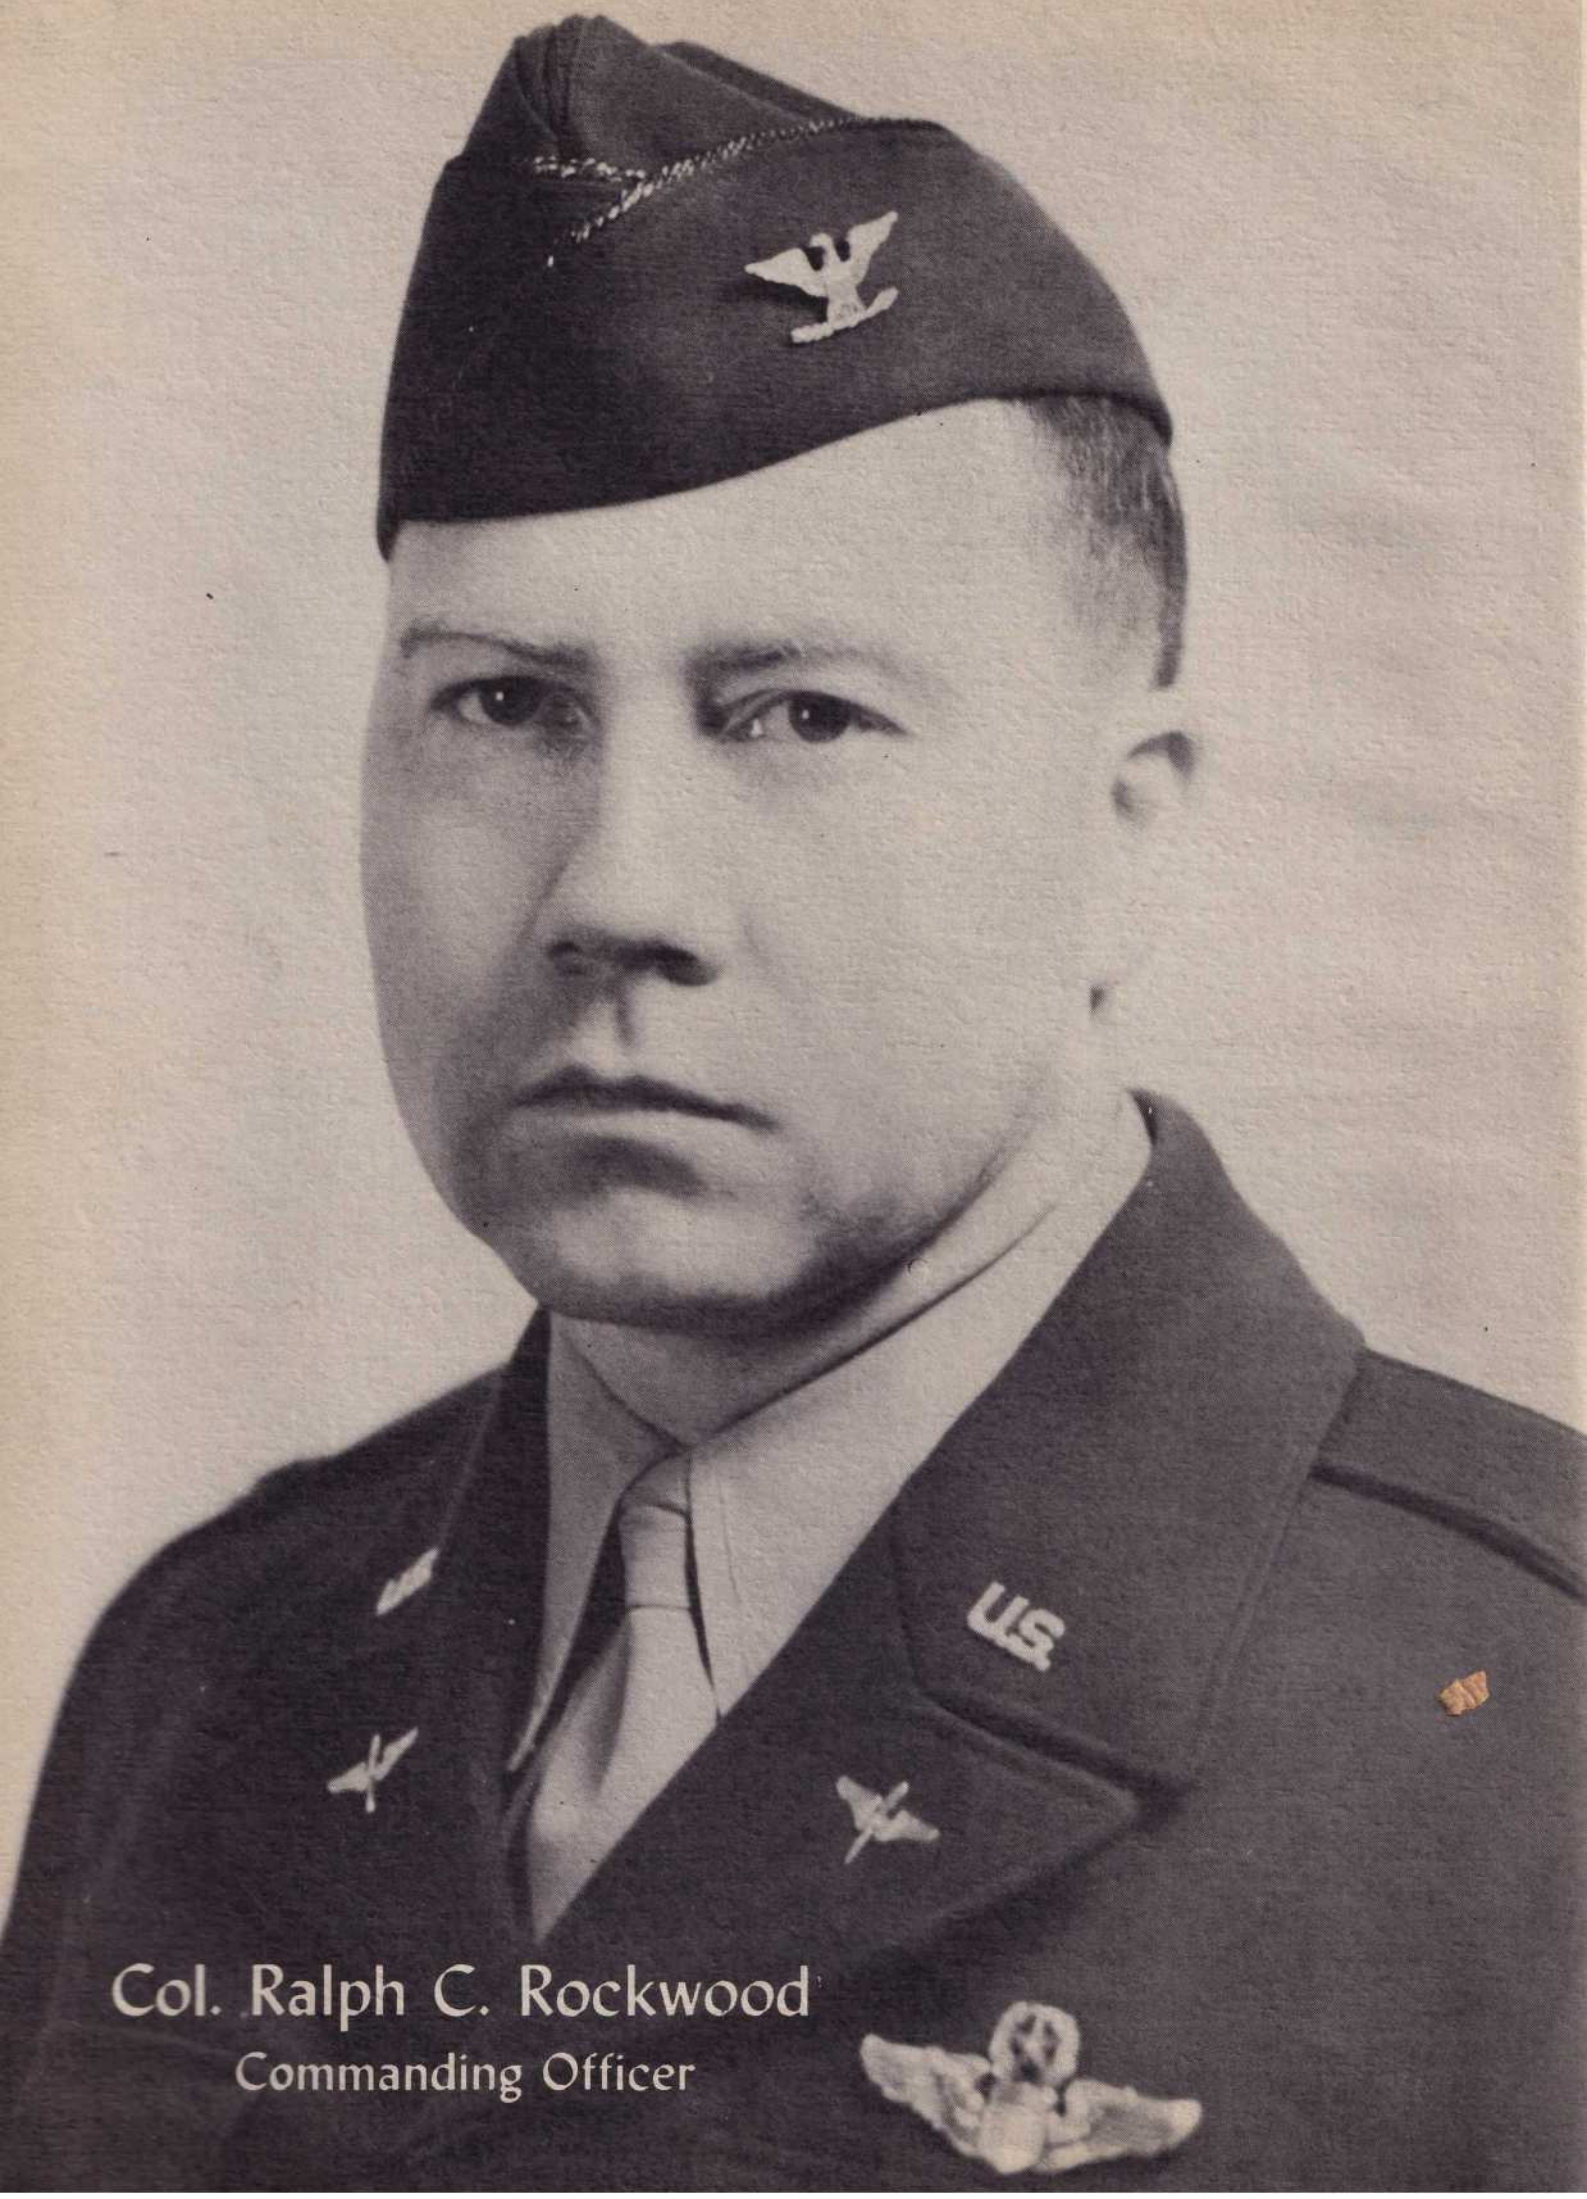

When their armies, their factories, their homes were bombed to hell and defeat, it was the classes of '42 . . . '43 . . . '44 carrying the ball, the bombs, and the hell.

They're sending in a substitute team, now. The class of '45 . . . our class . . . 125 . . . And 'though we are known as the victory class at Big Spring, and 'though we will be known as the victory Air Forces of the United States, it will no longer be, "TWO DOWN, AND ONE TO GO." It will be, "THREE DOWN, AND HOME TO GO."

And so do we, the members of 125 dedicate this book, not to today, not to tomorrow . . . but to VICTORY!

Bombardiers' Oath

In the presence of Almighty God, I do solemnly swear and affirm, that I will accept the precious trust placed in me by my Commander in Chief, the President of the United States of America, by whose direction I have been chosen for Bombardier Training.

I pledge myself to live and act according to the Code of Honor of the Bombardiers of the Army Air Forces. I solemnly swear that I will keep inviolate the secrecy of any and all confidential information revealed to me, and in the full knowledge that I am a guardian of one of my country's most priceless Military assets, do further swear to protect the secrecy of the American Bombsight, if need be, with my life itself.

LT. L. O. BLOOMINGDALE
Physical Training
In Charge of Cadets

"Rain or shine, foul weather or fine," seemed to be the motto of the physical training department.

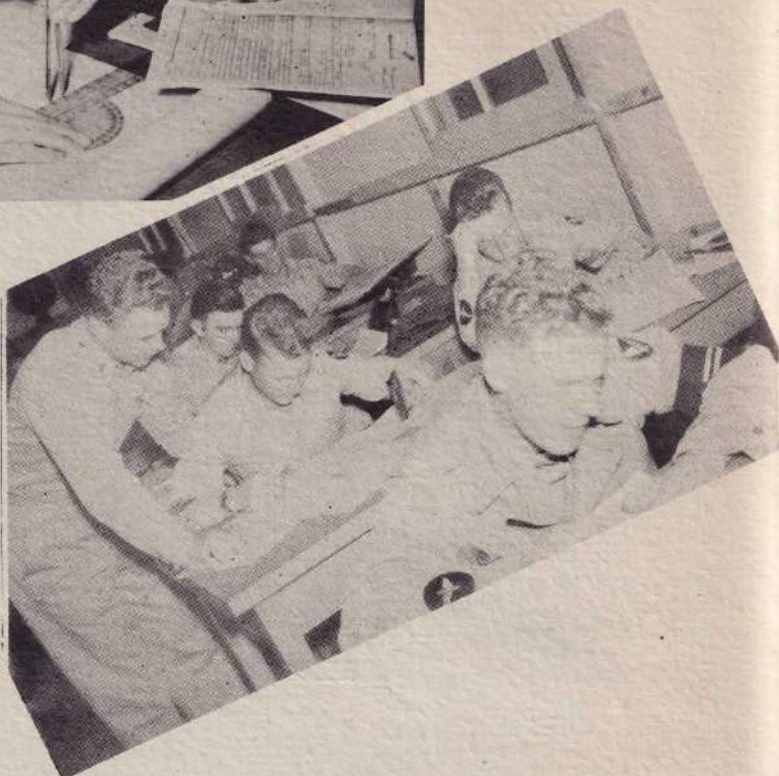

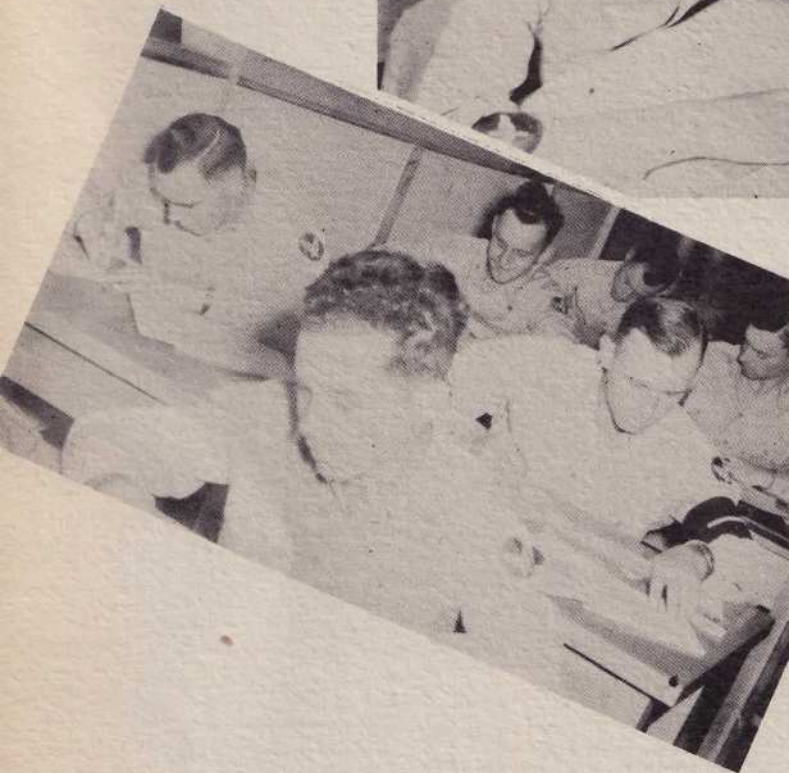

The class expresses thanks to Lt. Bloomingdale and the non-coms who assisted him. We leave Big Spring physically fit and with a better concept of outdoor play and sportsmanship.
