FLYER

54-0

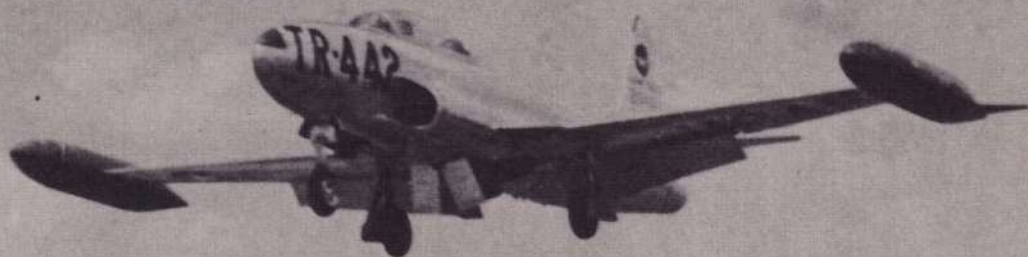

to Capt. Edward H. Kopsel, who made his final flight 21 July 1954, a farewell salute, given with the most sincere assurance that his life has not been sacrificed in vain. To him, do we his classmates, humbly dedicate this book.

FLARE

HEADQUARTERS
3505TH PILOT TRAINING WING
GREENVILLE AIR FORCE BASE, MISSISSIPPI

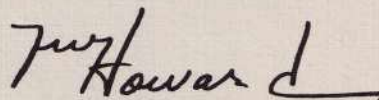

To Class 54-0:

School days end but education goes on. Education can be either formal or informal. You have just completed a formal course of education designed to project you in the coveted realm of management.

No one person is capable of learning everything nor of qualifying himself to manage everything. Each person must decide for himself the field in which he chooses to contribute his efforts and talents. You young men have admirably selected the field which is your country's first line of defense - THE UNITED STATES AIR FORCE.

As officers, you become the managers who will lead and guide personnel of this great organization, and you will be responsible for the wise and economical use of the funds and assets entrusted by the people of our country.

Accept this responsibility and this trust with humility and confidence. Be grateful that our Creator endowed you with the mental and physical capabilities to perform what will be expected of you.

Monday Morning

Oh, I have slipped the surly bonds of Earth.
And danced the skies on laughter-silvered wings; Sunward I've climbed, and joined the tumbling mirth
Of sun-split clouds—and done a hundred things
You have not dreamed of—wheeled and soared and swung High in the sunlit silence,
Hovering there,
I've chased the shouting wind along, and flung

My eager craft through footless halls of air—
Up, up the delirious, burning blue, I've topped the wind-swept heights with easy grace/Where never lark, nor even eagle flew,
And while, with silent, lifting mind I've trod
The high, untrespassed sanctity of space,
Put out my hand and touched the face of God.
